The ravening hawk pursuing, The trembling dove thus flies, To shun impelling ruin Awhile her pinions tries; Till of escape despairing, No shelter or retreat, She trusts the ruthless falconer, And drops beneath his feet! CCLIV. MARK YONDER POMP, Tune-- Deil tak the warn. Burns tells Thomson, in the letter enclosing this -ng, that he is in a high fit of poetizing, provided he is not cured by the Btrait-waistcoat of criticism. You see, said he, how I answer your orders; your tailor could not be moro punctual. This strain in honour of Chloris is original in conception, but wants the fine lyrical flow of some of his other compositions. I. Mark yonder pomp of costly fashion Round the wealthy, titled bride: But when compai- d with real passion, Poor is all that princely pride. What are the showy treasures! What are the...

Reviews

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
