Died, March 22d, 1873, James Thomas Dennison, of brain fever, after a severe illness of two weeks. He was a member of the West Hebron congregation, Washington county, N. Y., and a son of William and Eliza Dennison. He was 21 years and 1 month of age. His father died when he was fourteen, leaving his mother with three children, of whom he was the eldest. He was the principal earthly dependence of his mother, who remains a widow. He was tenderly affectionate and a promising member of the church. The high esteem in which he was held by his companions and the neighborhood, was abundantly testified by their devoted attention and tender sympathy during his sickness and at his funeral. What is your life? It is even a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. Like the grass That grows at morn are they. At morn it flourishes and grows; Cut down at ev n doth fade. For over it the wind doth pass, And it away is gone I And of the place where once it was It shall no more be known. J. y, g....
