Eight hundred and one railroad certificates were validated, which is a record for the association and for any other trade association meeting at K. C, we are informed. Exactly 760 of our members and their friends sat down to the banquet on Thursday night, which is again a record both for this association and for any gatherings of this nature in Kansas City. Two hundred and seventy four ladies attended the Ladies Lunch on Wednesday and all but forty went on the auto tour of the city which followed. Every one of these affairs and the many others moved on without a single hitch, or even a complaint, so far as we have yet to learn. Every one seemed satisfied and happy, even the manufacturers, who did not Tell the demomtrator.
