Not illustrated. 1863 Excerpt: .a serious question, what shall be done with so many to whom a refusal of aid, is a signal for dissolution. The calls for help are more frequent, more urgent, and with better promise of success, than ever before, if help is granted. Not one in ten of our giving churches have forwarded a dollar for more than a twelve-month. To delay is greatly to endanger very precious interests. Will not all send something, before April 30, 1863? Our financial year closes at that date. What we have and shall receive by that time is our basis of work for the ensuing six months. I know that the means are in the hands of Christ's friends, to meet the present and pressing necessities of these feeble churches. Let the following letter be carefully read. It tells its own story. The writer is a well-known and highly esteemed agent of the American Home Missionary Society, and his statements need no indorsement or qualification from me. Names are withheld for obvious reasons. The letter bears date March 23, 1863. A few weeks since, I preached the dedicatory sermon of a new meetinghouse, at a thoroughly out-of-the-way place, called N--B--, among the hills in C--, N. Y. It is in the midst of a large number of poor people, and ignorant, whose cabins seem to be full of children. The condition of this people moved the heart of an aged Congregational minister, Rev. O. K--, living a few miles...
