Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address on the Culture Demanded by the Age Especially is this the case with those studies which address themselves in any sense to the imagination. There is scarcely any enjoyment in life comparable to the refined and elevating pleasure, which accompanies these early exercises of the mental powers. All the freshness of this peculiar happiness these associations are powerful to recall; and though each period of life, even on to the extremest age, has its own privileges and its own mission in the adorning and perfecting of character, yet this period, when we were nurtured by this august mother of us all, must, in our recollection of it, ever thrill and animate our hearts. We realize in the happy retrospect the fulfilment of the prophecy, so familiar in our college days - Haec olim memiuisse juvabit. Of this our venerable Alma Mater we may well be proud, and rejoice that we are permitted to number ourselves among her sons. For more than a century she has been the prolific and faithful parent of a progeny...
