Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual for Church Officers Ye stand this day all of you before the Lord your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp. - Deut. xxix, 10, 11. The general and the soldiers do not make an army. The military efficiency of the rank and file, the value of the army under the leadership of a Grant, a Wellington, or even a Napoleon, depends upon the valor, ability, and disciplined cooperation of the officers, both of the staff and line. The essential factors of a Protestant church are three: the pastor, the congregation, including the body of the membership, and the lay officary; in Methodism, the pastor, the membership, with the congregation, and the lay members of the Quarterly Conference. These must heartily cooperate to make an efficient working Methodist church. The pastor is trained to this end. The membership have weekly instruction in their duties.
