The following announcement and accompanying programme are ample guarantee of the interesting and profitable time awaiting those who are fortunate enough to be in attendance: A Kbligious Congress. The Universalist Church has been founded in Erie, Pennsylvania, fifty years, and this parish proposes to celebrate its Semi-Centennial September 11th, 12th and 13th, inclusive, by having a ReligiousCongress, on a small scale. The programme is given below, and the names thereon are a sufficient guarantee of the high mental character of the papers that will be presented. We propose to present Liberal Religion before this community as it has never before been presented, and nothing we can think of would do us more good than a rousing meeting like thisThere should be a strong Liberal Church in this city of 50,000 inhabitants....
