Excerpt: .might be confidently looked for in the mother of six healthy and always hungry kittens. XIII EDITOR WOODSIT A TRUE FRIEND f NE morning--it was a Thursday morn ing, as I distinctly recall--I was much surprised to find that work upon the house had practically been suspended. I was sure there could not have been a strike, for I told the workmen at the beginning that whenever they felt as if they were not getting enough pay they must come to me about it and I would raise their wages. They had already been to me three times and received an increase of pay each time. So I felt moderately secure against a strike. Uncle Si explained the situation briefly. The plasterers were to have begun today, said he, but there is no water for them; so I had to send them away. No...
