It provides for relieving the Passenger Railway Companies of the city of Baltimore of a tax called the Park Tax, to the extent of one-half the amount now required to be paid to the said city. In order to understand the nature of this Park Tax, it will be necessary to examine into its history. The first proposition looking to the construction of a Passenger Railway in the city of Baltimore was by Chas. A. Talbott, Esq., who, on the 17th of January, 1859, as a member of the City Council, introduced a resolution reciting that by the Act of the General Assembly of 1831, chapter 252, full power was given to the city of Baltimore for the construction of tracks...
